A BIT ABOUT byOliviaBell

Meet Olivia Bell: The Creative Force Behind byOliviaBell

Hey there! I'm Olivia Bell, the artist and illustrator behind byOliviaBell. I'm based in London and I love creating unique illustrations that all start with hand-drawn designs.

My Artistic Process

Hand drawing is the heart of what I do. I use traditional illustration techniques to carefully build up line, texture, and detail, making artwork that feels lifelike and packed with character. My artistic background helps me achieve a level of detail and refinement you don't usually see on greeting cards, which really sets my creations apart from the mass-produced stuff.

Sources of Inspiration

I get my inspiration from animals, pets, and the natural world, especially those little, quiet moments that make them special. Each card is meant to be more than just a greeting; I hope it feels like a tiny piece of art you can cherish, pin up, or frame long after the occasion is over.

Hand drawn and thoughtfully made

Handcrafted Artistry and Sustainable Practices

Every byOliviaBell card is crafted entirely by hand, from the initial sketch to the final artwork. I believe that this slower, more deliberate approach infuses each design with warmth, authenticity, and uniqueness.

Sustainability holds great significance for me, and I am dedicated to using eco-friendly materials whenever possible. All of my cards are fully recyclable and printed on FSC-certified board. Additionally, all outer packaging and shipping materials used to carefully deliver your orders are also completely recyclable.

I feel that selecting the perfect card is a personal and meaningful decision. Through my hand-drawn designs, I strive to honor that sentiment by creating something thoughtful, beautiful, and enduring. I hope you cherish my cards as much as I enjoyed creating them, and that they hold special meaning for both you and your customers.

All UK suppliers

Fully recyclable cards, envelopes, clasps, cello bags, and packaging

We use Royal Mail for delivery, which is the greenest delivery option for letters and parcels.

We draw, pack, and print in the UK, keeping our footprint to a minimum—producing locally reduces our transportation emissions and promotes sustainable business practices.

Our printer's warehouse is solar powered and their printing presses are carbon neutral.

Our cards are printed on FSC certified board.

10% of our tranquility range gives back to Mind, a mental health charity that helps to prevent anyone from facing a mental health struggle alone.

Durable and high-quality materials mean our cards are keepsakes and not throwaways - our cards are designed to be kept and framed like little pieces of art.

Beautiful Nature

Printed on 300gsm FSC-certified board with a textured finish, each 105 × 150mm card is blank inside and paired with a colourful envelope.

Cards are supplied in packs of six.
