Beneath the bright and cheerful world of the Besties lies a hidden underworld wrapped in shadows. This is the home of the mysterious Spookies. With glowing eyes, crooked grins, and terrifying appearances. They may seem creepy and at first glance...

But deep down, they want the same thing as every other Bestie: Love, friendship, and to belong. These spooky creatures are finally ready to step out of the shadows and find their place in the world.

Meet Jinx. One second there, the next perched somewhere high up, judging everything quietly. Jinx moves like a shadow that forgot to stay still, slipping between moonlit corners and half-open doors.

If something flickers in the dark, it's Jinx... probably.

Not exactly cheerful—but dependable in a slightly eerie way. Every sip with Mortimer feels like a small chill down your spine (in a fun way).

Meet Benny the Beast, the creature who was technically built for scaring... but really just wants to hang out and have a good time. Big, fluffy, and even bigger on personality, Benny prefers laughs over scares and snacks over spooks. If there's a "roar," it's probably just excitement about something fun happening.
